GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS HENDERSON AS DISTRICT ATTORNEY IN GUILFORD COUNTY

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley today named James Douglas “Doug” Henderson as District Attorney for the 18th Prosecutorial District (Guilford County). Henderson fills the vacancy created by the appointment of R. Stuart Albright to the Superior Court bench.

“Since 1983, Doug Henderson has established himself as a respected criminal trial practitioner,” Easley said. “His wealth of experience and knowledge of the law will continue to serve the people of Guilford County well as District Attorney.”

Henderson, a Greensboro native, has worked in the criminal law field since 1983 as a partner in the law firm of Henderson & Henderson PLLC, a firm started by his father and uncle in 1923.

He has tried both misdemeanor and felony cases in the North Carolina courts during his career. Henderson is a former Deputy Clerk in the U.S. District Court, and Magistrate in the North Carolina General Court of Justice.

Henderson received his undergraduate degree from Guilford College in 1975 and his law degree from N.C. Central University School of Law in 1983.
